

GRAND VELAS
Los Cabos | México

The world's most expensive taco • $25,000 USD •

You can now be one of the first to enjoy this experience!

At Grand Velas Los Cabos we're taking taco and tequila tasting to a luxurious new level. Witness this grand event, as we raffle off the most expensive gourmet taco experience in the world, paired with Ley .925 tequila from "La Ley del Diamante" bottle; valued at a total of $3.5 million dollars.

The fundraiser will benefit the Los Cabos Children's Foundation, a nonprofit organization that for the past 14 years has been working to bring quality of life to the children of Baja California Sur, by supporting public and private programs that focus on their health needs - from cancer, critical health and congenital heart defects, to autism and dental, vision and hearing clinics.

Don't miss this magnificent opportunity to contribute to a great cause and win the grand prize!

The Most Expensive Taco in the World

Its tortilla is made of corn and 24k gold flakes. The filling consists of langostino, Kobe veal, 'Almas' beluga caviar and black truffle brie cheese. It is served with an exotic morita chile salsa with civet coffee and Ley .925 Ultra Premium Añejo Tequila.

Ley Diamante .925 Tequila

A ceramic bottle forged at high temperature, artisanally crafted by the Maestro Gerardo Cedillo. Made by 100% Mexican hands over the course of 10 months, decorated with liquid platinum and 4,100 diamonds. The entire bottle weighs approximately 8 kilos, or 17 pounds and 10 ounces, and comes in a Chiapan mahogany case with "piano" finishes and beveled mirrors. This project is sponsored by the Compañía Tequilera Hacienda de La Capilla of Los Altos de Jalisco, Mexico.
